RESTAURANTS GASTRONOMIE

There are so many great restaurants around. Below there is our list!

TAMARIU

Rodondo: great Fideuà and seafood (the Catalan equivalent of Paella)

Es Dofi: great seafood – very simple but authentic, open during winter; a nice option for a lunch at the beach; they do not accept reservations, so be there in time (before 1 pm)

El Clot dels Mussols: A bit more sophisticated than the two other options above.

LLAFRANC

Far Nomo: Near the lighthouse Far de San Sebastià. Very trendy and popular Japanese kitchen with Catalan influence; open through the entire year; you need to book in advance, in particular during summer – the restaurant is fully booked during the weekends. Make sure that you get a table outside. If the weather allows it fantastic view over the entire bay of Llafranc and Calella. You can also just go there for a cocktail!

El Far: El Far Restaurant is a great value for money and offers traditional Mediterranean fare based on fresh products sourced directly from the Costa Brava. Its excellent rice-based dishes, fish and seafood from Palamós are especially worthy of mention, as are the locally produced meats and vegetables.

Jani: Trendy little, stylish restaurant at the promenade of Llafranc. Catalan cuisine, tapas etc.

Casamar: One star Michelin restaurant, great experience on innovative Catalan cuisine. Reasonable pricing against other restaurants at this level. Usually tables can be booked shorthand (other than e.g. Can Roca in Girona, where you have to book a year in advance). Open during winter season (not on every days though)

CALELLA DE PALAFRUGELL

Fiego: Great experience on the first line of the beach. Please book well in advance! They are super-popular. Try the amazing Fideuà!

Tragamar: This is a very trendy place, which just got recently newly decorated and is so nice to look at. Food is also very good with "upper-level" tapas style, really good seafood and wines and deserts. The restaurant belongs to the Tragaluz restaurant group, which owns also a number of restaurants in Barcelona. All of their places are very stylish and always a very good recommendation.

PALAFRUGELL

Restaurant les Palmeres: A very solid option for a local backyard lunch after a morning of shopping in Palafrugell. Lunchtime menu comes at very low prices for great quality and there is a playground for children while waiting for the food.

L'Arc: Nice alternative for lunch, a bit hidden behind the markets from the crowds in the centre of Palafrugell.

BEGUR

El Convent de Begur: Enjoy this old monastery place in a small valley with great meat dishes and a calm environment around you. You can combine it with checking out the bays of Sa Tuna and Sa Riera which are very beautiful.

Sa Tuna Begur: Located in the Promenade of Sa Tuna Beach. Mediterranean cuisine, a wide variety of tapas and the best paella with ingredients of our sea and our land, great variety of fish and sea food which comes on a daily from the nearest market.

Toc Al Mar Aiguablava: Great experience in Aigua Blava Beach. The place is very trendy, beautifully decorated with a huge terrace to sit outside right at the beach of Aiguablava. Please book in advance!

GIRONA

El Celler de Can Roca: The restaurant has been awarded a number of times as the best restaurant of the world. You have to book a year in advance.

TOP PLACES TO VISIT

PALS

Pals is a medieval town in Catalonia on a hill surrounded by plains. It lies a few kilometres from the sea. It contains a Romanesque tower built between the 11th and 13th Centuries, known as the Torre de les Hores (Tower of the Hours). The town is enclosed by a town wall that contains four square towers which date from the 4th Century. It has several shops, and restaurants and is a great place to visit.

BEGUR

Begur is located in the heart of the Catalanian region Baix Empordà. Begur offers amazing views of the impressive hills of Begur Massif, as well as the Coastline up to Cadaqués. The town itself is haunted in history and there are still numerous monuments left as legacies. It offers fantastic restaurants to visit and is great to explore in the early evening.

GIRONA

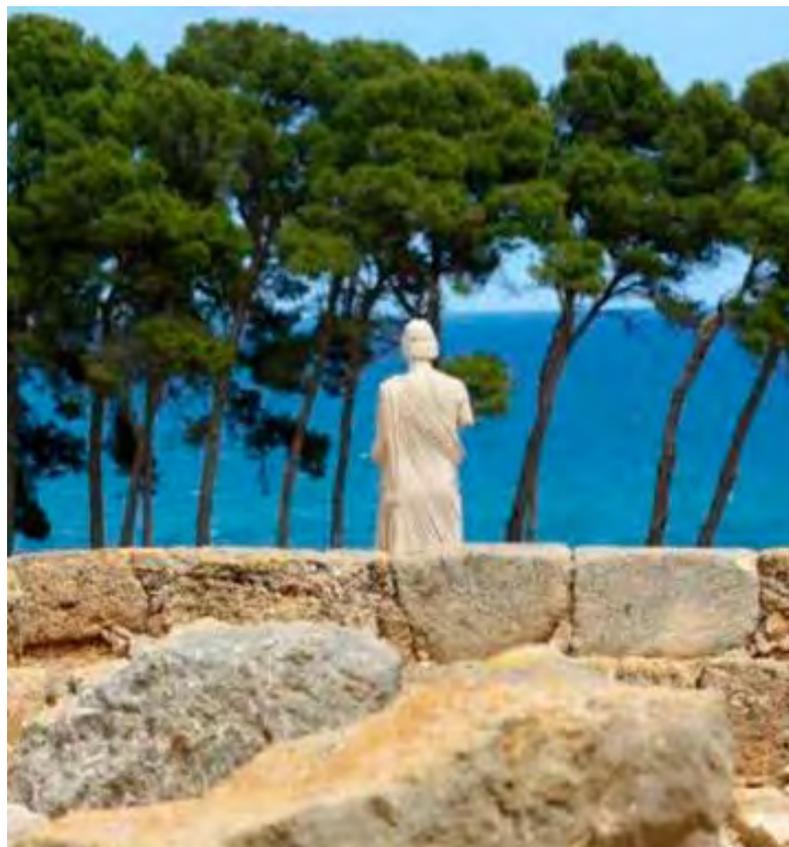

Girona is one of the major Catalan cities. It's an interesting city as it offers visitors to trace more than 2,000 years of its history through two fortified enclosures, the Força Vella and the Medieval Quarter contains an ancient cathedral. The city was enclosed with walls; this was carried out during the 14th and 15th Century. The city's artistic heritage has been preserved in the numerous monuments that still stand today, as well as the impressive old Jewish Quarter with its beautiful streets and porticoed squares. Girona is a wonderful place to visit.

PÚBOL

Salvador Dalí and Gala, his wife, lived in the medieval castle of Púbol during the seventies and early eighties. Since 1996, you can visit this spot, where you can see different works that the artist gave to Gala as well as dresses, sculptures and different types of objects of great creativity.

RUINS OF EMPURIES

Located in an incomparable setting, next to L'Escala, you can visit the ruins of the Old Greek and Roman city of Empúries. Founded around 500 BC, this was the front door of these two important cultures in our peninsula.

MARKETS & SHOPPING

Shops, Bars, Fish Markets, Shopping galleries and much more!

PALAFRUGELL

The town city centre has a wonderful market, which is opened 6 days a week (closed Mondays). Fresh fruits and vegetables can be purchased at the market stands on the streets. Inside the market halls you will find all sorts of cheese, fish and meats of exceptional quality and with the regional specialities. It comes with a price but well spent.

Close your shopping with a coffee or a first beer on the Plaça Nova or in the market hall where you can enjoy the market-atmosphere and its people.

Palafrugell has got some nice shops around Plaça Nova, which keep you busy for a couple of hours – nice Spanish shopping experience. Shops close at 1 pm and then open again at 5 pm – 8 pm.

BEGUR

Much smaller than Palafrugell, but also very nice to stroll through. A handful of nice shops, bars and restaurants.

CALELLA DE PALAFRUGELL

Calella is famous for its beautiful location at the sea – you'll find it on every post-card of the Costa Brava – a must see.

LLAFRANC

Llafranc is a bit smaller than Calella but nicely located in a bay including a small marina. The sandy beach allows a shallow access to the water which is maybe more convenient for smaller children.

PALS
